THE CALLS TO THE PASTORATE.

NOTE.—The translator calls attention to the fact that the following documents, and especially those probably prepared by Dominie Haegimont, are not models of elegant composition, and that in places the sentences are incoherent and the meaning quite obscure; but he has endeavored to give a translation as nearly literal as possible, supplying words only where they appear to be imperatively demanded.

I.

THE CALL TO DOMINE MANCIUS.

IN THE NAME OF GOD:

The call to Domine Georgius Wilhelmus Mancius as regular pastor and teacher in the Church of Christ at Schraelenboerg and Peremis.

Whereas, we, the Dutch Reformed Congregations of Schraelenboerg and Peremis, are entirely without a pastor, and whereas it has pleased God's Providence to bring your Reverence to this far away country in order to extend the Kingdom of Jesus and to gain souls, and whereas we have understood from Do: Muselius of Tappan, that you, Reverend Sir, are free and able to accept a call; therefore, we, the subscribing Elders and Deacons of the Dutch Reformed Congregations of Schraelenboerg and Peremis, in the name of said congregations (having also heard of, and observed your capability as a divine preacher,) have consulted Do: Muselius; and after calling upon the Holy Name of God, we have chosen and called you, the Rev: Dom: Georgius Wilhelmus Mancius, to be our regular pastor and teacher.

Therefore we, through this our written dedication (opdraging), truthfully declare to each and every one whom it may concern that we thus call your Reverence Do: Georg: Wilh: Mancius:

I. As lawful regular pastor and teacher of the Dutch Reformed Congregations of Jesus Christ of Schraelenboerg and Peremis in the Province of New Jersey, to preach the Word of the Lord in its purity, to take charge of the catechetical exercises, to administer the Holy Sacraments as instituted by Christ, to uphold the church discipline together with the elders of the congregation, and further to do everything pertaining to the office of a zealous and faithful servant of Christ, for the good of the church in accordance with the [rules laid down by the] Synod of Dordrecht, anno 1618 & 1619. In particular:

powerful co-operation of God's Spirit) in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ for as many as belong to our congregation, [we pray may be moved to accept this call]. We also hope that our heartfelt affection and love towards you may be reciprocated, by you; yea, we even expect that your Reverence, in the fear of the Lord, and with a ready heart, will accept this our call to be our lawful instructor, even as it is being sent and extended to your Rev: with a heartfelt sympathy by us and the congregation. Your Reverence may therefore rest assured, as we promise you by the present in the name of the congregation, that we shall keep you among us in such esteem, and treat you with such love as is due to a zealous and faithful servant of Jesus Christ.

Jehovah God, we pray, make this our call successful, and make it redound to the honor and glory of His name, the extension of His Kingdom, and the gaining and saving of many souls. Amen.

Done by order of the Consistories of Schraelenborg and Peremis at Tappan, the 23rd day of December, in the year after Christ's birth 1730.

FREDERICUS MURZELIUS,
Minister of the Gospel of Christ's Congregation of Tappan.

This call of the Rev: Georgius Wilhelmus Mancius having been accepted, he started on his journey to come to us, August 18th 1731.

THE CALL TO DOMINE GOETSCHIUS.

HAKKENSAK, August 13, 1748.

Call to Joh: Henricus Goetchius, S. S. candidate for the ministry, now residing at Jamaica, Long Island, as second pastor in the Dutch Reformed congregations of Hakkensak and Schralenburg.

We, pastor, elders and deacons of the two above named congregations, having taken into consideration the capability, reputation and conduct of the Rev: J. H. Goetchius, who was ordained a candidate for the Ministry by the Rev. Classis of Amsterdam, and declared fit to be called by any Dutch Reformed Congregation, and we, in the fear of God having beforehand thought over it all, have concluded with the unanimous consent of our congregations, lawfully to choose him as our second regular pastor and teacher, for the abovenamed congregations.

Having this day assembled for the purpose, after invoking the name of the Lord, we extend to you the call, and choose you, Rev. Joh: Henr: Goetchius, candidate for the ministry, for our regular pastor and teacher, together with our Rev. Father A. Curtenius, in our congregations of Hakkensak and Schralenburg, to preach the Holy Gospel among us, to teach the catechism, to administer the Holy Sacraments, and to diligently, prudently and faithfully uphold the church discipline, together with the elders of the congregation, and furthermore to do everything pertaining to the office of a faithful servant of Jesus Christ, in accordance with the Word of God and the ecclesiastical regulations of the National Synod, held at Dordrecht 1618 and 1619, and under the supervision of our Rev. Coetus, subordinate to the Rev. Classis of Amsterdam.

And as to the particulars: your Reverence shall be obliged to preach twice on a Sunday; a text of your own choosing in the forenoon, and in the afternoon from the Heidelberg catechism, and twice on the ordinary church holidays. Four times a year you must celebrate the Holy Communion, holding the preparatory sermon a week beforehand. Twice a year you must visit the members of the congregation, teach the catechism once every week, and all of this according to the customs of the Dutch Reformed church.

You have to preach twice in succession at Schralenburg, and the third time at Hakkensak, but before your Reverence is installed, the consistory shall determine the time and place of your turn to preach, of holding communion, of catechising and several other things that are necessary.

And that you further may know on what conditions we call you, we state that we promise you a yearly salary of Eighty two Pounds and Ten Shillings of money, current among us. Hackensak promises to pay Twenty Seven Pounds and Ten Shillings, and Schralenburg Forty seven Pounds, and four free Sundays, but upon the condition that when Schralenburg can pay Eight Pounds additional, they shall not owe the four free Sundays.

We also promise to build, not far from the church in Schralenburg, a suitable residence, of which Hackensak shall pay one third and Schralenburg two thirds, and we shall also provide you with a garden and fire wood.

The congregations also shall pay the expenses, incurred through the ordination by the Rev. Coetus, meeting at New York; and every incoming elder and deacon shall be bound to sign your call, prior to being installed before the congregation.

Your salary will commence from this day on, to wit: August 13. 1748, and we, the subscribing elders and deacons, promise to pay such salary faithfully according to our promise. We therefore request you to accept this our earnest call in the name of the Lord, and to come to us as soon as possible, and we will receive you with all due respect, as a faithful servant of Christ.

May God, from whom all blessings flow, approve of this our work with his heavenly approbation. Amen.

All this has been done in my presence, at the request of the consistories of Hakkensak and Schralenburg.

ANTONIUS CURTENIUS.

MEMORANDUM.

As, at the call of Do: Goetchius as second Preacher of Hakkensack and Schralenburg, the consistories of Hakkensak and Schralenburg promised Reverend Curtenius that they would see to it that his salary should be paid to him every year before Do. Goetchius should be paid, therefore we, the undersigned elders, faithfully promise in the name of the consistories of Hakkensak and Schralenburg to do this; and that every year, on signing both the calls, the same shall be paid by the incoming consistories; and we have judged it proper that this written promise shall be put under the call of Do: Goetschius, as is also done, at present, in the session of the Coetus at New York, on this 27th day of September, 1748.

After invoking the presence of the Lord, we teachers, and consistories of the two congregations of Hakkensak and Schraelenburg, assembled, have agreed to the following articles.

Members of the church council are:

Do: Antonius Curtenius, praesis.
Do: J. Henricus Goetschius, scriba.

Jan Saberowwiski, Gerret Hoppe,	Elders of Hakkensack.
Jan Cornelius Bogert, Lowrens Akkerman, Jacob Van Saan,	Deacons of Hakkensack.
David De More, Jr., Carel De Baen, Jacobus Peek,	Elders of Schraelenburg.
Abraham Lydekker, Chiliam Bogert, Arie Banta, David Christi,	Deacons of Schraelenburg.

At which service Do: Jno. Henrycus Goetschius was installed by his Reverence Do: Antonius Curtenius in the church of Schraelenburg, the 16th October 1748, from Heb: 13, Verse 17.

Following are the articles:

1. That the two pastors shall by turns administer the Lord's Supper in the two congregations, do the house visiting, and on the preceding Thursday preach the preparatory sermon; that is, when one pastor performs this work in one congregation the other shall do the same in the other congregation; however, this shall not be done on the same day, but there shall be at least fourteen days difference, and it shall be optional with the pastors which congregation shall be the first.

2. That the Rev Do: Goetschius shall hold public catechismal exercises once a week on Thursday in the church of Schralenburg or in his house, when that shall be ready, but he shall be at liberty outside of this to publicly edify the two congregations in some place in one of the congregations with catechismal or other exercises, which will be announced from the pulpit.

3. That the pastors shall preach by turns in the two congregations, except in the two wintermonths, when each pastor stays with the church nearest to him, but when Do: Curtenius is not able on account of age or physical weakness to preach at Schralenburg, then action shall be taken according to the terms of the call.

4. Should one of the pastors die or be sick, or not be able to further officiate, then the remaining pastor shall attend to both congregations the whole year by turns, and each congregation shall pay half the salary and all other expenses.

Approved by the great consistory at Schraelenburgh the 30th day of October, 1751, that the four call Sundays and the two free gift Sundays shall commence from New Year's day, January 1st, 1749.

FROM THE CHURCH BOOK AT HAKKENSAK.

On the 1st day of October, 1753, in the church at Hackensak, the Rev. consistories of Hackensak and Schralenburg having met, and after the Rev: Pres: A. Curtenius had called upon the name of the Lord, it was mutually and unanimously agreed to meet one another in Christian love and friendship, and it was resolved that in matters coming before us this day, whether of interest to Hackensak or Schralenburg, the consistories and deacons of both congregations shall have equal voices.

The Rev. consistories of both churches are thankful for the advice of the Reverend Coetus, as to their action in electing the consistory, except Do: Curtenius who wishes that another set of rules be unanimously adopted, according to the last paragraph of the minutes of the Coetus.

And it is resolved that hereafter the elections of consistories both in Schralenburg and Hackensak shall take place according to the sound advice of the Rev: Coetus in this matter.

Furthermore the deacons of both congregations gratefully submit to the sound advice of the Rev: Coetus concerning the exchanging of the money for the poor, and it also has been approved that the resolutions of the Rev: Coetus concerning both congregations, together with the action of the consistory above mentioned, shall be publicly announced in both congregations on Sunday next.

It has also been resolved that the undersigned members request Jacob Oudwater to appear three weeks from to day at 1 P. M. in the church at Hakensak, before the consistory, as advised by the Rev: Coetus in order to restore the brotherly love.

(signed underneath)

(Col. conc. me teste)
J. H. GOETSCHIUS.

In name of all, and the last undersigned,
A. CURTENIUS.
J. H. GOETSCHIUS.

The advice of the Rev: Coetus to choose a consistory is verbally as follows:

That free nominations shall be made by all members of the consistory, out of which a choice shall be made until such time as the congregation unanimously adopt some other measure, suitable to its peace and welfare.

NEW YORK, Sep. 14, 1753.
Col: Conc: I. CASPARUS FRYEMOET, P. t. Sec.

The advice of the Rev: Coetus in regard to the changing of the poor money is as follows:

As regards the changing by the deacons of farthings [?] for pennies, on Sundays after the benediction has been pronounced in the church at Schralenburg, the Assembly advises (considering time and place) that it would be more edifying to desist, and that the deacons in order to give satisfaction in the exchanging, do so at another time and place to those members of the congregation, desiring it. Also that all dissensions which have arisen on account of it, may be adjusted in a christian and brotherly manner.

(Below was written) NEW YORK, September 20, 1753.
In the meeting of our Coetus.
SAMUEL VERBRYCK, Pr. pro tem.
I. CASP. FRYEMOET, Sec. pro tem.

This 13th day of May, 1755, both the consistories of Hackensak and Schraelenburg having met, and after invoking the name of the Lord, it has been reported to the consistory that last Friday at the house of Samuel De Moree about twenty-six or twenty-seven persons, members of the congregation, held a meeting and elected as leaders four men; and further, David De Moree Jr, Elder, reports that the four men so nominated are: Pieter Duric, Roeloph Martesse, Carl De Baan and Peter Dan. De More, who requested him to call a meeting of the consistory for this Monday (being yesterday) at 8 o'clock, in the church. which has been done.

The four elders of Schralenburg report that they were here present on the day and hour named, and when the four above elected men arrived, Pieter Dan. Demoré said : "We have been sent here by the congregation to request you that as your people have withdrawn from us, you shall keep open the church for service when Do: Goetschius preaches in Hackensak, and as your people have procured a pastor, we shall do the same."

The consistory answered that they will consider their request at the church meeting, and they have notified them that this day the consistory shall meet, and they have been invited to be present, but they have not appeared.

It has been unanimously resolved that under supervision of the consistory and at their expense a reader shall be appointed to take charge of the religious exercises on such days as Do: Goetchius does not preach in the church, by reading a sermon from such book of sermons as shall be approved by the consistory.

The consistory appoints Benjamin De Moré to lead the exercises under their supervision.

It has been further resolved that next month, in both congregations the pastoral visits shall take place, and the Lord's Supper be celebrated, commencing at Schralenburg.

The meeting closed with prayer.

FROM THE SECOND BOOK OF RECORDS AT SCHRAALENBURGH, OF THE CHURCHES OF HACKENSACK AND SCHRAALENBURGH.

Minutes of the actions of the Dutch Reformed congregations of Hackensak and Schralenburg since the departure of the Reverend Antonius Curtenius to Long Island, who according to Do: Goetchius, has now left for good, and Do: Goetchius by some new signatures having been appointed, but others refusing the same have unanimously resolved that they would not further have anything to do with Do: Goetchius. For that purpose eight trustees were chosen, to wit: Jacob Outwater, Jacob Kip, Louwerens Ackerman, Hartman Blinkerhof, Pieter Duric, Carl DeBaan, Roelof Martusse, Pieter D. De Marest, to do everything and make every effort to select a consistory and afterwards a pastor, and having been authorized and agreed according to signatures, they have chosen Rev: Gerardt Haeghoort, pastor at Second River as its neighboring oldest preacher, for Adviser (consulent), to aid them in a call, so that everything may be done in order and a christian manner, and to that end, we, the above trustees have called all the male members to a meeting in church on the 22nd May, 1755, under the supervision and guidance of the above Adviser (consulent), to proceed with the election of a consistory and install them in their office.

1. After invoking God's holy name it was resolved that the four trustees in their respective congregations shall nominate eight elders and as many deacons, and that from them four elders and as many deacons shall be chosen for the church and congregation at Hackensak and at Schralenburg, and that those who have a majority of the votes shall be recognized as the legal consistory.

2. Pursuant to this resolution, out of the nomination of eight elders and deacons made by the trustees, the following elders have been elected by a majority of votes, for Hackensak: Hendrik Kip, Arie de Groot, Jores van Gise, Benjamin Westervelt; and for Schralenburg: Jacobus Peek, Cornelius Leydeker, Joost Zabruwisko, Jacobus De Marest; and for deacons for Hackensak; Poulus Martusse, Jacob Cor. Banta, Jan Bogert, and Abraham Westervelt; and for Schralenburg: Sylvester Earel, Marte Roelofse, Jacobus Lizier, and Jan Pieterse Durie; and for overseers of the poor, for Hackensak: Jan Terhuyn, Nikasy Kip, Stephanus Terhuyn, Isak Huysman; and for Schralenburg: David J. De Marest and Johannes Peek.

3. That the consistory so elected, of both the congregations of Hackensak and Schralenburg, with the consent of the trustees, shall be announced alternately in each church three times, and when such announcements have been made without objection, the same shall be installed four weeks from the last announcement in the church at Hackensak by the Reverend Gerard Hagoort, as our Adviser (consulent).

4. That in regard to the matter of Rev: Theodorus Frelink rejected by the Rev: Do: Antonius Cortinius, and, the matter having been taken into further consideration, our meeting has unanimously resolved and approved that the eight trustees with the Rev: Do Hagoort as their Adviser (consulent) shall protest and confirm this protest, and lay the same before the Conferentie Meeting, in New York, on the 27th day of April next.

This all was done in the month of May, 1755, in the above named place, in the churches of Hackensak and Schralenburg, with the trustees and all the members present, in the presence of their Adviser (consulent), and with thanks to God.

This I confirm.

DO: GERARD: HAEGHOORT.

I also sign this as witness, except as to article 4 of this writing.

DO: VAN DE LINDE.

June 23, 1755, in the church of Hackensak, after invoking God's blessing, the consistory met, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted :

1. That yesterday on the 22nd of the month, according to former resolutions, the consistories elected for Hackensak and Schralenburg have all been legally installed in the church of Hackensak by the Rev G. Haeghoort, with the consent of his consistory of Second River, as he has shown to us by their writing.

2. It has been unanimously resolved by the newly installed and by the outgoing consistories of Hackensak and Schralenburg, together with the trustees, that both consistories, each in its respective congregation, shall call upon the members and ask what each will freely give towards calling and providing for a preacher.

3. In pursuance of the above resolution, a list has been made to be circulated in order to get sufficient signatures to insure a salary for the pastor, when we call a regular pastor for our congregation, according to the constitution of the Dutch Reformed Church and the Synod of Dordrecht, held in 1618–1619.

All this done and agreed upon on the above day and date. I being present as Adviser (consulent). GERARD HAEGHOORT.

Witnesses, we, the eight Trustees.

DOMINE SCHUYLER CALLED.

In August 1755, in the church at Hackensak, after invoking the name of the Lord, the consistory of Hackensak and Schralenburg, the trustees and both congregations being present to proceed with the call of a regular pastor for them, the salary has been found to amount, according to the signatures, to the sum of Eighty Pounds, New York money.

1. The meeting taking into consideration what would be best in making a call, to extend the same to a minister at home or abroad, it was unanimously resolved that the call should be extended to a Dutch Reformed Pastor at home.

2. That whoever shall have a majority of the votes of the congregation shall be considered to be called by the entire congregation, the minority voters having to join the majority.

3. The congregation left the making of nominations for pastor out of which a call should be extended to the governing consistory and trustees of Hackensack and Schralenburgh, and the latter have nominated :

Rev. G. Haeghoort,	Pastor at Second River,
" J. Schuyler,	do.	" Schagory,
" A. Van Hoevenburg,	do.	" Reynbeek,
" R. Erkson,	do.	" Newersink,

and by a majority of votes has been called :

4. Rev: Jo: Schuyler, and it has been resolved to let Rev: Haeghoort call on the former and find out whether he will accept the same or not. The meeting closed with the benediction.

Present : REV. GERARD HAEGHOORT, Adviser (consulent).

May 17–1756, after invoking God's holy name, a Consistory meeting was held at the house of David Provost.

The pastor elect, Rev: J. Schuyler, having arrived, and being informed of everything, and the call extended to him having been handed to him in writing, he accepted the same in the fear of the Lord, and his reverence has been thereupon heartily congratulated by the entire consistory and trustees, and the latter have thereupon immediately signed the call and furthermore promised:

1. That the same shall be read to the congregations to sign the same after being acquainted with the contents, and thereafter the call shall be in the safe keeping of the consistory till Do: Schuyler arrives, when it shall be handed to him in the presence of two witnesses, Revs: Haeghoort and Van de Linde.

2. That Do: Haeghoort shall give a letter to the two deputies of the consistory who shall go for Do: Schuyler, instead of a clergyman, to relieve him of his present congregation, conveying a request to let him go to his new congregation, serving at the same time as an attestation to that effect, and that the traveling expenses of the Rev. Mr. Schuyler shall be paid to him.

3. That Do: Haeghoort, as Adviser (consulent) and neighboring pastor, shall at the proper time, after proclamation has been made for three Sundays, ordain Rev. Mr. Schuyler in his work as pastor for both congregations, in the church whose turn it shall be to be preached in.

All this done and approved the day above mentioned in the above house. I being present as Adviser (consulent).

GERARD HAEGHOORT.

This is the heading, according to a unanimous resolution of the newly appointed and acting consistory of Hackensak and Schralenburg, together with the trustees, made the 23d of June, 1755, to circulate separately in each congregation, in order to see what each one who is interested or will become interested, is willing to freely give with all his heart, and to contribute in order to obtain for ourselves and our congregations of Hackensack and Schralenburgh a pastor, and to support the same in a proper way according to the word of God, and we therefore, in consequence of this christian resolution, hereby ask everyone to aid in this holy and christian work, and to sign for that purpose what they are able and willing to contribute each year, in order to enable us and themselves to call a regular pastor and instructor for our congregation and to have a sufficient foundation to support the same, and to have a continual and steady service of the preaching of the pure Gospel to us and our children in length of days, that is to say, a shepherd and teacher tried in the Word of God, and according to the Dutch Ref: Protestant confession and religion, according to our constitution and the Synod of Dordrecht 1618–1619, and this is the holy and christian resolution and aim of our consistory.

Having considered and approved of all this, we, the members of the Hackensak and Schralenburg congregations and all those belonging thereto, bind ourselves collectively and separately to pay over to this present consistory and to their successors, from time to time to be chosen in their stead, yearly and from year to year, so much as we promise opposite our signature or mark, in order to make up the yearly salary for which we intend to call a pastor. At the same time and in the same manner, we also promise and bind ourselves to supply the pastor, so called, the whole year through at his dwelling house with firewood in sufficient quantities.

This heading we have all signed as witnesses of the entire matter.

L. C. S.

III.

THE CALL TO DOMINE SCHUYLER.

IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD.

As it is the duty of every Christian to propagate the pure preaching of the holy word and gospel of God which only leads to salvation, and to further the same with all his power and consequently spread the Kingdom of Jesus also in this far away country at the end of the earth, especially when we have plenty of room and liberty therefor, and as this duty especially devolves on those whom the Lord has called as overseers and leaders of the congregation, especially when they are enabled by an abundance of temporary means to do so efficiently; and as the Dutch Reformed congregations of Hackensack and Schralenburgh, situated in Eastern New Jersey, North America, belonging under the crown of Great Britain, and together with others retaining and enjoying the privileges as established Dutch Reformed Churches, are so situated that the separation took place between those who, excepting about forty families, had called for their second pastor the Rev: Goetchius, caused by the departure of Rev. Curtenius, their oldest and most worthy minister, whereby those congregations are free from the ministrations of the Rev: Goetchius, according to the conditions of his call, but as part of the congregation adheres to Do: Goetchius and has accepted him anew and has signed for him, without mentioning anything about the second pastor, and others have for reasons refused the same, declaring to the consistory at Schralenburg that they never directly or indirectly wanted to have anything further to do with Do: Goetchius, and have persisted in their way, as all of this has appeared in and been proved by documents, also in all its actions with the neighboring pastors and consistories, and as it has been shown to the classis of Amsterdam in all its circumstances, and the congregations of Hackensak and Schralenburg, having each legally installed an acting consistory each for themselves, being separated and distinguished from those of Hackensack and Schralenburgh, who cling to Do: Goetchius, and the unlawful efforts of their adversaries being fruitless and without avail as is known.

And as we, as such separate congregations by virtue of a unanimous resolution of our newly installed and acting consistory, and trustees, adopted June 25, 1755, to go around in each congregation, to see what each, who is interested, or is willing to belong thereto, is willing and faithfully promises to give and contribute, so that we for ourselves and our congregations of Hackensack and Schralenburgh may acquire a pastor and be enabled to support the same reasonably according to the word of God, and we have bound ourselves willingly to contribute and pay to our present consistory, and to those who may succeed from time to time, yearly and from year to year as much as we have agreed to pay under our signature, mark or order, or still intend to promise, to subscribe or pay, and also to furnish the pastor who may be called, throughout the year with enough fire wood at his house, as we still specially bind ourselves thereto, separately and collectively, as also our successors, executors, and administrators, in order that we all together would be fully able to be sure on this foundation of a reasonably sufficient amount to call and support a regular pastor and teacher in order to enjoy the permanent and continuous church service of the pure gospel for us and our children in length of days, and particularly a clergyman well versed and tried in the word of God, of the Dutch Protestant Reformed confession of faith and religion, and who does not deviate from the same, according to our constitution and that established by the Synod of Dordrecht 1618–1619.

Therefore we the undersigned members of the present consistory and trustees, together with those belonging to the respective and separate congregations of Hackensack and Schralenburgh who have already signed to extend a call and pay a salary and those that may belong thereto and will sign, taking in consideration the means for supporting a regular pastor and teacher for ourselves and as we particularly need the good will of the congregations, in order to have such a pastor, in these our circumstances, to edify and build up our congregations and to promote our Eternal welfare, and as among all the preachers sent by the Providence of God to these regions it has appeared to us that the learned and pious Johannes Schuyler pastor at Shoggarie is a very able minister, in the fear of the Lord, and awaiting his graciously rich blessing, we call by these presents, you, the Reverend Johannes Schuyler for our regular pastor and preacher, to teach the Gospel at Hackensack and Schralenburg, twice each Sunday, alternately, excepting the three coldest winter months and then only once; further on all Christian Holidays to expound the Word of God and the Heidelberg Catechism forcibly in our language, according to the rules laid down by the National Synod of Dordrecht, and to explain the same; furthermore to celebrate the Holy Sacrament of the Communion four times a year alternately in the church at Hackensack and Schralenburgh, to visit the houses of the congregation as often as this shall be deemed proper or necessary, and to hold the preparatory sermon on Friday or Saturday preceding the Holy Communion Sunday; to uphold and exercise Christian punishment and discipline in accordance with the rules of the church; furthermore each Sunday or on other days to teach the Catechism to our young people and others, to visit the sick and needy, and to do the work of an Evangelist and all that the Lord requires of a faithful servant. Also to awake the sleeping and careless, in order to save those that otherwise would be lost; to bring the erring back, to lead all to the saving faith, and to support the faithful therein; to strengthen the weak, comfort the sorrowful, and forcibly inspire every one with the true salvation of the Holy Spirit through faith, so that God's Holy name may be praised by all and the Kingdom of His Son may be propagated amongst ourselves and our children here at the ends of the earth.

The conditions of the obligations connected with this our call, are the following:

1. That your Reverence shall enjoy and be paid the yearly sum of £80. current York money, every year to be paid half yearly the correct half of said £80., being £40.0.0, as a fixed salary so long as you shall remain our regular pastor and teacher, and you shall observe among us the service of faithfully preaching among us the true Gospel.

2. That we shall furnish you with a free dwelling house and garden and attachments, and shall keep the same for you in necessary repairs, and we shall furnish you throughout the year with a sufficient quantity of fire wood.

3. That when you preach in Schralenburgh according to its turn, every other Sunday, you shall be fetched from and brought back to the parsonage by each congregation in turn without any expense to yourself.

4. We promise all this and legally bind ourselves thereto collectively for us, our heirs, executors and administrators, without guile or mistrust, and this our call shall remain in full force and effect, except on your departure or death, and should old age or sickness intervene, we shall act and agree with you in a Christian manner.

5. And finally all of us bind ourselves to submit to all good orders, rules and discipline exercised by yourself and the consistory in power, or those that may be elected and installed as such from time to time among us; as also to the church orders and rules of the Synod of Dordrecht, classis of Amsterdam and the Synod of Holland, being subordinate to them as far as it is proper and is consistent with the circumstances of our ecclesiastical condition in this country under the English crown, or such a form of ecclesiastical rule as they might propose to us and should be judged as acceptable by us and other congregations, over which afterward the consistory in power and the congregations should judge and make resolutions; and finally to the dogmas of unity as fixed by our church in the motherland.

This our call directed to your Reverence, we hope and pray may be found acceptable by you, approved and readily accepted, and we pray the great Shepherd of the sheep that it may please Him, according to His great goodness to follow the same with His divine blessing, that it tend to the glory of His most Holy name, to the building up of our congregations and the gaining and salvation of many souls; and that your Reverence may come to us for that purpose with a full blessing of the Gospel, and that we may not only receive you in love and esteem, but may also keep you. Amen.

Signed and delivered in our presence as witnesses and Adviser (consulent).

Given and done in our church meeting at Hackensack this 17th day of May, 1756, in the 29th year of his Majesty's reign, A. D. 1756.

BAPTISMS.

From the oldest records at the South Church.

NOTE.—It will be observed that for a number of years, owing to causes alluded to in the Introduction, the books now in possession of the (South) Church of Schraalenburgh embrace three distinct Baptismal Registers. The first book records the baptisms from 1724 to 1797, the second book those from 1756 to 1800, and the third book those from 1783 to 1800. During a certain period, therefore, it may be necessary to search all three of these registers to discover a desired record of baptism.

NOTE.

The French Church mentioned on page 2 of Part I. was the Huguenot Church at Kinderkamack, on the west side of the Hackensack River, a few miles north of Hackensack, whose records, unfortunately, have been lost. An interesting account of the settlement of the Huguenots at this place is given in Rev. Dr. David D. Demarest's paper read before the Huguenot Society, and published by him in 1886. The members of the Huguenot Church were doubtless absorbed into the Dutch Church at Hackensack.
